REAL ESTATE INSURANCE

To the Graduating Class: It CAN happen here

This firm was founded in 1932—in the depths of the Great Depression—by a man who had "three strikes against him": he was out of a job, he had a wife and six children to support . . . and he was a Negro. His firm, started in a basement office with one part-time employee, has grown into a thriving enterprise which has provided employment and business training to many persons when racial barriers prevented them from obtaining either elsewhere. It became the first Negro-owned firm in the world to have agency contracts with old-line stock insurance companies and to maintain its own underwriting department; to number among its executives the first Negro with the designation C.P.C.U.—Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter; to have as its senior Vice President the first Negro with the M.A.I. designation, indicating membership in the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers; to manage and insure large, multiple unit luxury and garden apartment developments.

Yes, it can happen here, and we are proud to be a living growing example of the opportunities that exist for ambitious, educated young people of all races.

MARKS OF QUALITY

Today, J&L and other steel producers—proud of their skill as the pistol maker was of his—identify the beauty, durability, and quality of steel by including the Steelmark symbol in their national advertising and sales promotion. Leading manufacturers of steel products also use it to label their quality products. Look for the Steelmark when you buy.

There are one-story intellects, two-story intellects, and three-story intellects with skylights. All fact collectors, who have no aim beyond their facts, are one-story men. Two-story men compare, reason, generalize, using the labors of the fact collectors as well as their own. Three-story men idealize, imagine, predict; their best illumination comes from above, through the skylight. — OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

The 1967 Kent Yearbook Staff

The 1967 Yearbook staff, headed by Norris Dodson and Katie Boyce and guided by Mr. Tracy attempted to make a major improvement over Kent Yearbooks of the past. The majority of our success is due to the fact that we set early deadlines which we kept and met. Notable members of the staff at the Boys' school were Ware, chief assistant editor; Evans, senior editor; Newton, advertising and sales manager; Stevens, sports editor; Klotzbach, Patch and Cole, copy editors, and Barbour, Newton's assistant. Dodson and Baumgarten were the photography editors. Dedicated editors assisting Katy Boyce at the Girls School were S. Riford and M. Geer, the chief assistant editors, and B. Mueller and M. Stevens.

Riding Crop

The Riding Crop had new horses to work with this year. After a few months of training seven Crop members went hunting. The Crop had two shows with Ethel Walker's. Ethel Walker's won the first but Kent won the second by a margin of seven points. Ribbons from the shows this year were won by Andrews, Cather, and Ripley. The Crop had a lecture by Dr. Vreeland on horse diseases and stable management.

The Outing Club

This year the Outing Club was under the auspices of Father Speer, Mr. Bragdon, and Debbie Platt at the Girls' School, and Father Beaven at the Boys' School. The girls first went to Bish Bash Falls. Next on the agenda was Ski jumping at Salisbury. The boys made several short excursions around the area. The entire club wishes to thank its faculty advisors for their assistance.

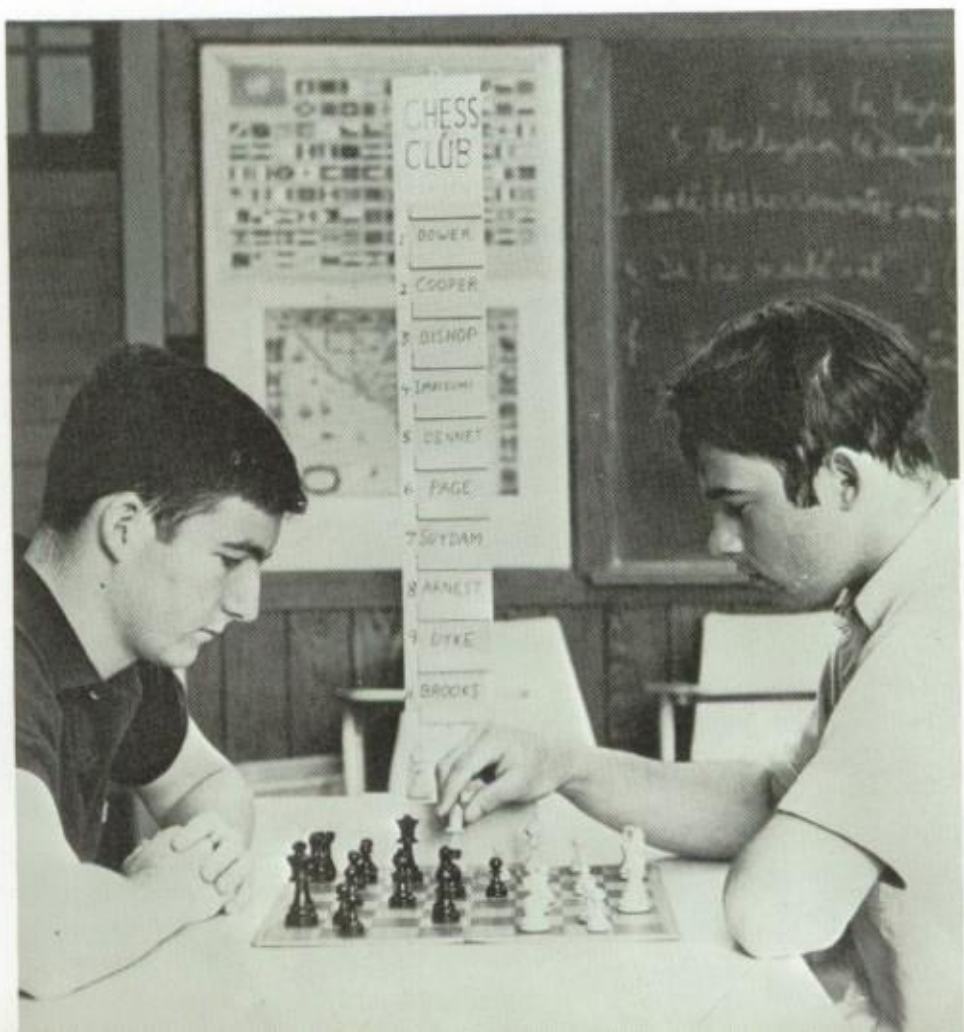
Gourmet and Gourmand Club

The newly invented Gourmet and Gourmand Club was formed this year. Mr. Bredberg, a talented chef prepared many exciting and exotic meals and for his generosity we wish to thank him.

The Chess Club

Arch-enemies, Bower and Cooper, battle it out for the number one position on the Chess Team. Cooper won.



Art Club

Mr. Saucy

The Art Club was so popular in September that two groups were formed, the mysterious R and S. They met on alternate Tuesdays to try their hand at various forms of creation with the guidance of Mr. Saucy. Due to the large membership it was necessary for everyone to work on the same project, contrary to Art Club custom. Fall term evidenced two dozen scarves printed with smudges and loving care. Winter term, everyone set out to make a set of coffee cups.

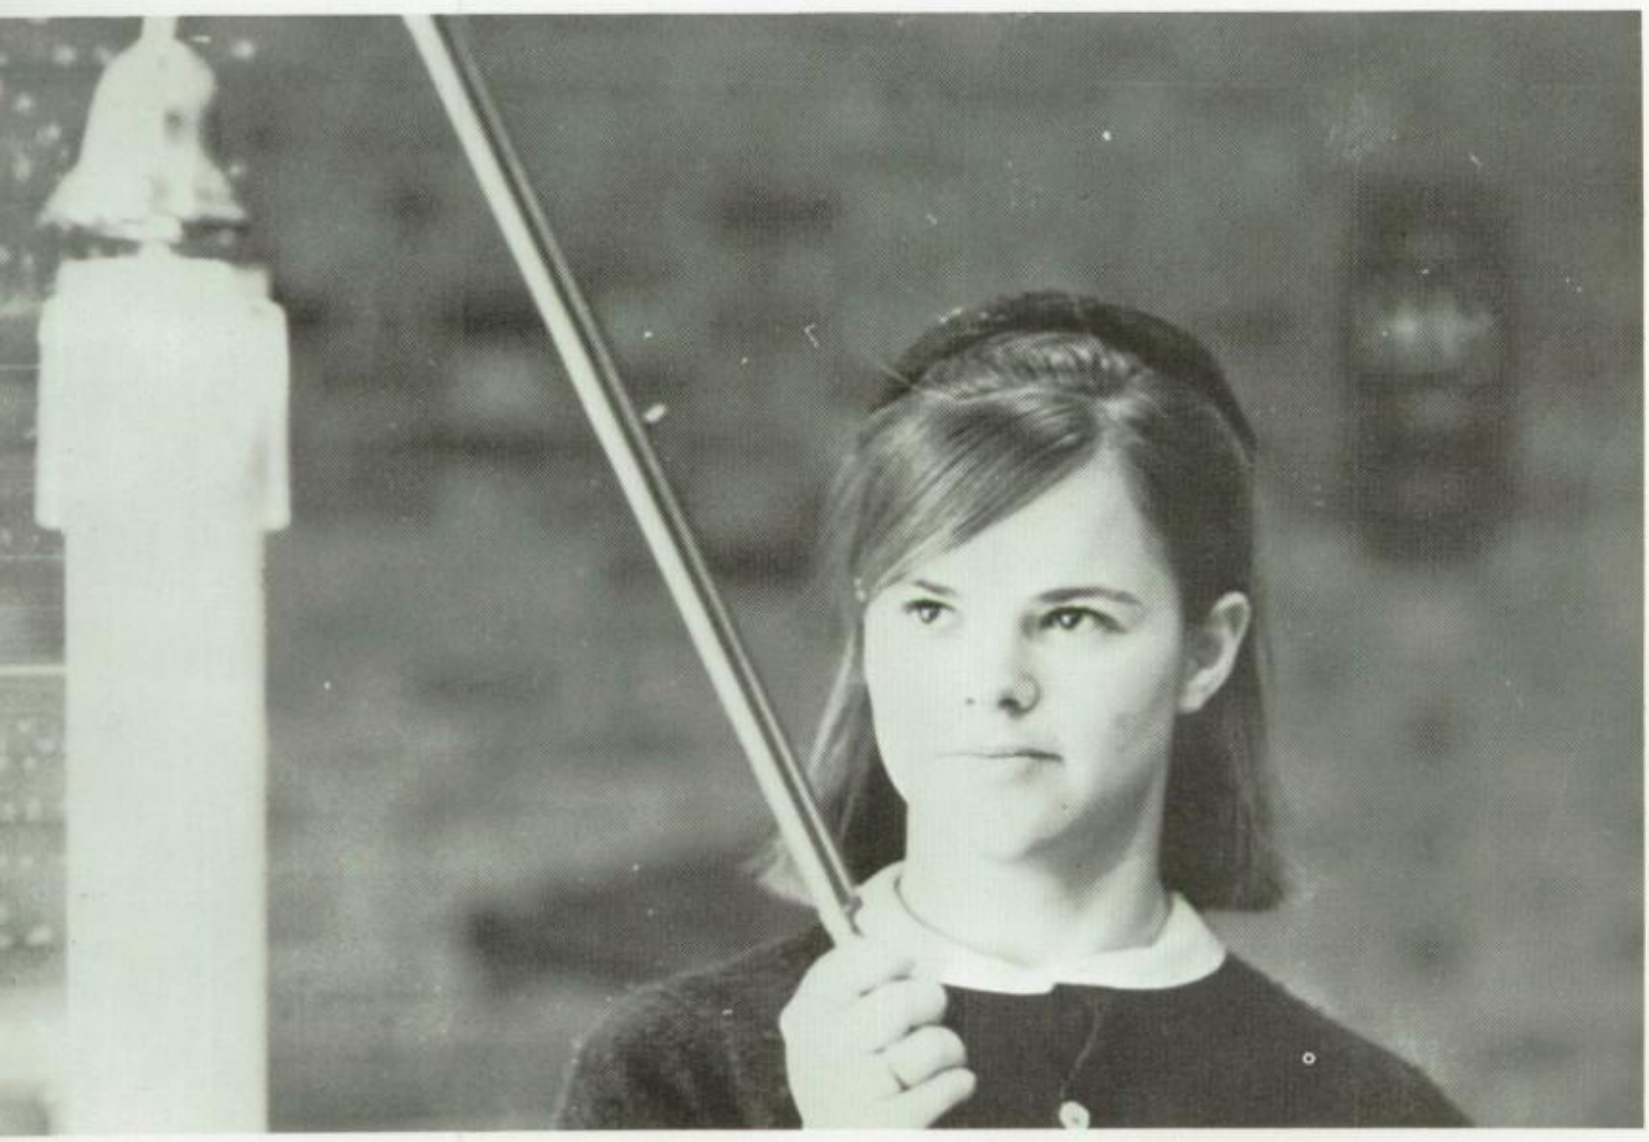
The Bellringers Guild

The Kent Bellringers Guild took a significant step towards rebuilding the group this year. The first band began with six members: deGanahl, Budd, Potter, Newton, Connolly, and Kee as chairman. Other members were added, allowing for greater diversity in the courses rung. The major accomplishment was a full-peal of Grandshire doubles done during Spring term; this was the first time that a full peal had ever been done in the tower. The club also made a trip to ring bells in the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. The Guild would like to express appreciation to Mr. Howard, the faculty advisor, for his help this year.

Altar Guild

Unlike last year, the membership of the Altar Guild, at the Girl's School this year, was exclusive to Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth formers only. It was felt that a smaller membership would make each volunteer's service a more meaningful one.

An Altar Guild member acts as an acolyte at the daily voluntary eucharist services. If she is a Sixth former, she has the opportunity to serve at the Sunday Eucharist services and also at the adoration services.



The Committee of the Concerned

The Committee of Concern has been active this year with weekly visits to Wassaic State School for volunteer work and occasional trips to Kent to help with a Brownie troup. There have been some joint meetings with the boys school where civil rights movies have been shown and guest speakers have talked. In all, the year has been a busy one and the participation very good.

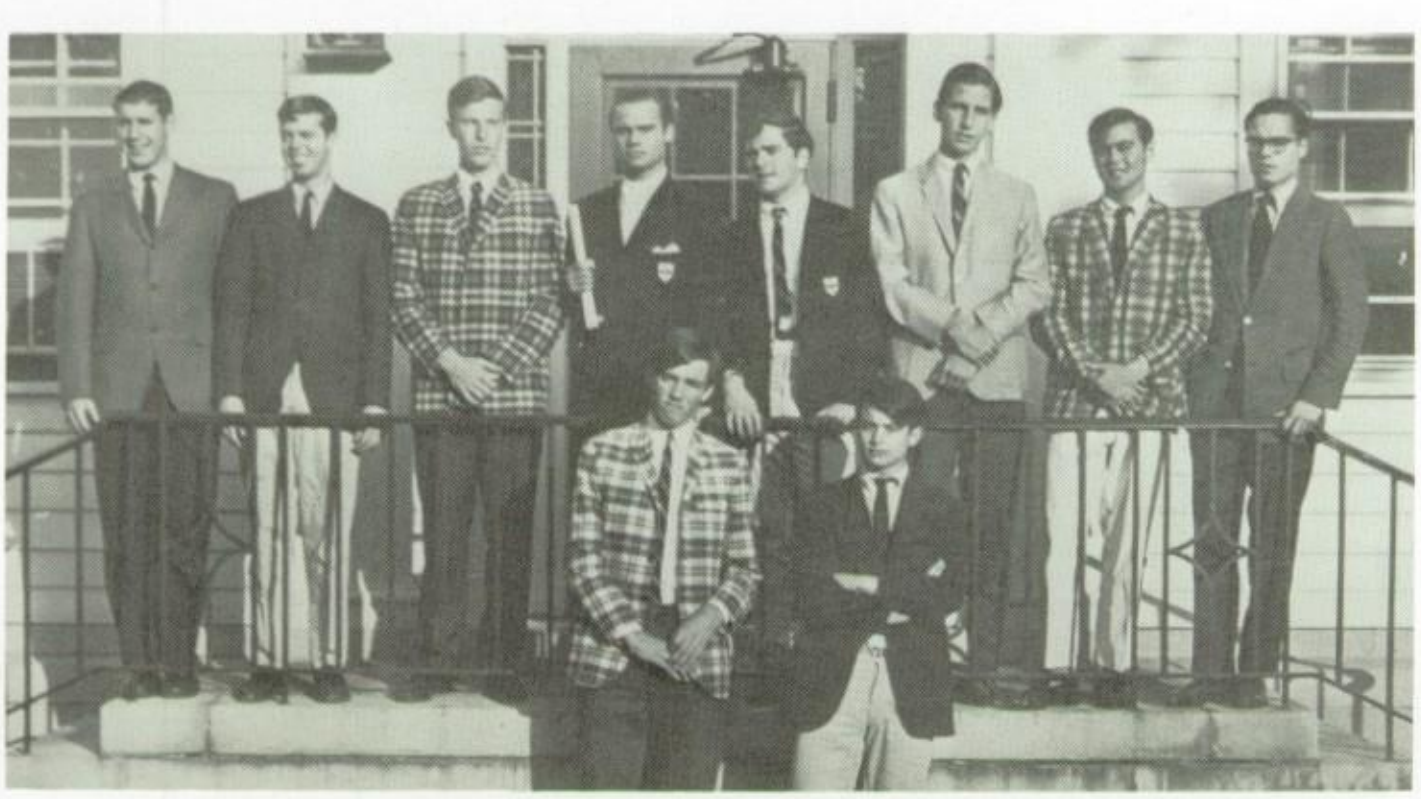
Spanish Club

This is the first year that there has been an official Spanish Club at the Girl's School. The Club is made up ot our eight South American Students and also all girls between the second and fifth year of the language. The monthly meetings consisted of talks illustrated by pictures, slides, dolls, and even records which the South American girls had brought. Special thanks is due to Mr. Semler, the faculty advisor and creator of the Club.

The German Club



BACK: C. Morgan, Griggs, Newton, G. Hoyt, Marvin, Parker, H. Stevens, A. Hoyt. FRONT: Pope, Beers.

This year the German Club again enjoyed a highly informal yet informative series of programs which included slide shows, first rate travelogues and old German film classics such as The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari, and The Blue Angel. Mr. Hoyt showed slides taken on a recent trip to Northern Germany.

As always appreciation goes to Mr. Frankel and the German Consulate in Boston for arranging the numerous showings.

French Clubs

Girls

The French Club has been newly established this year at the Girl's School, sponsored by Mr. Matoon and supervised by Hilary Mills. The club partook in trips to New York to see French plays and movies. A French table is set up every week for encouraging French dialogue. Interscholastic French Club meetings are also on the agenda providing French entertainment followed by a dance.

Boys

The French Club, headed by Tom Bower and Don Scudder had a good year. Tom and Don were able to arrange several movies followed by periods of discussion over refreshments. Perhaps the idea of a French table which Don and Tom initiated may continue next year. In the coming year it is hoped that several joint meetings will be possible to dispell the somewhat sterile atmosphere of this year's club meetings. Mr. Neves is to be thanked for his support of the club.

This year under the direction of Miss Gassett and Miss Kelz, The Girls School Math—Science Club reached unprecedented enrollment of thirty-nine girls. There were few changes in the program. The Club met approximately every other Tuesday night in the science wing to listen to talks covering subjects from fungus to the physics of ping-pong balls. Some of the members visited the Sharon Audobon Center on a Wednesday afternoon field trip while others delayed studying for exams to view films. Miss Gassett's famed cookies and Miss Kelz's cocoa gave weight to each meetings close.

The Math—Science Club overcame its anemic inactivity this year. It was able to do so largely through the introduction of films. Studying atomic energy, the club saw 16 films and had two guest lecturers, Mr. DeVillafranca and Mr. TeSelle. The club studied computers and the human brain, considering the question; "Can computers think?" Mr. Mott's demonstration-lecture, two student papers, and films were used. The proposed study of astronomy was frustrated by cloudy nights, although the president claims he saw Mars once. Hopes are up for more energetic student leadership under Jerry Beers and Dave Savran next year. Our thanks as usual go to Mr. Hurst and Mr. Mott for their help.

The Guild

The Guild has since 1956 allowed students of outstanding academic promise and ability an opportunity to do concentrated and advanced work in some area of interest to them. These students spend long hours in preparing papers which cover a wide range of topics that are judged by a Guild committee. This year, under a new master, Mr. James H. Breasted, Jr., the Guild expanded considerably. Through the course of the academic year twenty-eight students presented papers. In addition Mr. Robert Cluett and Mr. Clifford Rogers and Professor Louis T. Milic of the Columbia University English Department spoke before a Guild audience. The schedule of the Guild this year included eight dinner meetings and five non-dinner meetings.

Six of the student presentations concerned themselves with literary topics, and six with such current affairs as the draft and black power. David Savran directed a most creative and interesting presentation in which a small group of musicians performed three of E. E. Cummings' sonnets set to music by Savran. All papers were of high quality, and the Guild owes much to Mr. Breasted, Cluett, and Rogers for their leadership in a successful year as well as to those faculty members who sponsored student papers.

Girls' Debating Society

Polly Brooks opens a debate.

For the first time, the Public Speaking Society had a weekly space on the school calendar. Most Mondays or Tuesdays, the Club met in the Case common room for forums, debates or mock debates. We have won League forums with Salisbury, South Kent, Wooster, and St. Margaret' and non-League debates with Taft and Hotchkiss. At the Christmas party, to which two-thirds of the school came, Mr. Morris read "A Child's Christmas in Wales." Although we missed Mr. Morris during basketball season and Mr. Coburn on Wednesday nights we thank them for all their help and patience this year.

The Photography Club

The photography club was most productive this year. With our new and modern darkroom facilities we achieved professional results. The club president, Norris Dodson, was photography editor of both the yearbook and the news with Baumgarten contributing consistantly. Baumgartan became renowned as a talented photographer as his pictures were exhibited around the school. Other prolific members were Dodge, Baxter and Benson. The club would like to thank Mr. Hinners for his help.

The Press Club

STANDING: Mr. Whitaker and Vic Evans. SITTING: Craig Benepe, P. T. Moehrky, and John Doyle.

Since the founding of the Kent School Press Club, Kent has been an active member of the League of Preparatory School Press Clubs. The club's duties are to report sports scores and to prepare a summary of all home varsity teams, and a summary report of the teams in general are organized, printed, and distributed by the members of the club.

The club would like to thank Mr. Whitaker, the faculty advisor and Mr. Robert Partridge, director of athletics, who did much for the club.

The Kent News

The 1966–67 editors of the Kent News put out fourteen issues during the course of the academic year. Editor-in-chief, Charlie Ferree, and right hand man Peter Patch, received much valuable help from Paul Clapp and Hal Stevens as typing editors, from Dave Dawkins, Todd Seymour, John Holzinger, and John Klotzbach as general assistants. The Girls' School News was punctual and well prepared under the supervision of Sue Howard. The editors made ample use of both Norris Dodson's and Mike Baumgarten's picture-taking ability. Scott Baker turned in some informative feature articles. Both of the year's editorials were good and another strong point in the paper was the Alumni News. Special thanks from the staff to the News' faculty advisor, Mr. Whitaker, are in order for his devotion, penetrating insight, and quick wit.

This year the Library Club began it's activities midway through fall term with a lecture by Mr. Harper on editing books. During the winter term, Mr. Parks, director of both Kent libraries spoke on "Kent Libraries of the Past, Present, and Future." In subsequent meetings certain books were informally discussed and some members gave a short discription of books of interest. Members also considered ways to assist in the operation of the library.

The Cauldron

CLOCKWISE AROUND TABLE: Mills, Stuppmann, Mrs. Hunter, Mr. Custer, Brooks, Pickard, Horton, Savran.

The 1967 Cauldron was probably one of the best issues in the history of the magazine. A short story contest, with a cash award as first prize sparked renewed interest in prose composition throughout the school. This single edition of the magazine combined both the prosaic and poetic endeavors of the Boy's and Girl's schools, and also some very fine examples of student art. Faculty advisers, Mrs. Hunter and Mr. Custer, assisted the editors, Stuppmann, Pickard, Mills, Brooks, and Horton, in the make-up of the magazine.

International Relations Club

This year's International Relations Club was a combination of joint meetings for both clubs and several separate meetings for each club.

Early in fall term a lecture was given at the Boys School on international relations in general and their relation to American diplomacy today. A joint panel discussion on the Asian viewpoint in Viet Nam as opposed to the American viewpoint was held next. The girls held the last meeting of the term, a lecture on Buddhism and Japan by a Japanese student, Iwase Shitsu who came to Kent from Yale. During winter term, the girls held a panel discussion on NATO, the boys had a panel discussion on Red China's admission to the U.N. and the term was ended with a joint documentary movie on the Common Market. The girls devoted the spring term to a discussion of propaganda, while the highlight of the boys' spring was a very enthusiastic round table discussion led by Mr. W. Beigel on the U.S. commitment to Viet Nam.

Many thanks are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Livingston, the girls' faculty advisor, and Mr. L. Rand, the boys' advisor. This year's officers were John Cole and Goeff Harris at the Boys School and Bettina Mueller and Katy Boyce at the Girls School.

The Choir

The Kent School Choirs, headed by Chip Morgan and Ellen Donkin and under the direction of Mr. John Hinners, undertook a wide variety of music, performing it for services at St. Joseph's in Kent and for St. Mark's in New Canaan. Some of the pieces sung included The Three Kings, Ding Dong Merrily on High, Child My Choice, Of the Father's Love Begotten, Come–Rise Up Early in the Morning, and the Cantide of Simeon. Spring term the choirs concentrated on more sophisticated and difficult works: Lamentations of Jeremiah by Lassus, and works by Poulenc and Buxtehude.

The choir extends its appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Hinners both, for unflagging enthusiasm, patience, and an enjoyable year.

Stroup, Donkin, Thornton, Schreiber, Struppmann, Riford, Robinson, Stevens, Meinhold, Keller, Beebe, Mallory.

Kentettes

This year the Kentettes had only three new members: Ellen Donkin, Flip Meinhold, and Marf Beebe. Returning were Janie Struppman, Janet Stroup, Barbi Thornton, Sookie Riford, Laura Schreiber (pitch-pipe), Alice Robinson, Mary Stevens, Cynnie Keller, and Muffy Mallory. Flip and Ellen sang solos in a folk song called, "Will He Remember". Alice crooned, "Lover Come Back to Me" in purple velvet evening pants, Sookie sang, "Someone to Watch Over Me" in Chinese, and they all sang, "My Heart Stood Still". They sang for private groups outside of school, at Glee Club concerts, and at Kent dances.

Turner, Conklin, Hauff, Williams, Muzzy, Semler, Marvin, Stevens, Silverthorne, Stevenson, Hewes, Jenson, Charlton, Wilson.

Kentones

The Kentones enjoyed all their appearances this year. This is important to a small singing group for how can one expect to sing well if his heart is not in his music? This year they were very hard pressed for practice time, but despite this problem the group was able to enjoy a great deal of success. Chris Wilson sang a negro spiritual, Mike Hewes made his solo debut with Mountain Greenery. Rick Semler followed his fine tradition with Walking in the Rain and George Jones. Jay Marvin sang St. James Infirmary Blues and I Married an Angel. Two of the group's numbers were Mandy and Glory. Much thanks goes to Mr. Gilliam for his help.

The Girls' Glee Club

The Glee Club was slightly smaller in size this year, but the change provided a necessary clearness in tonal quality. After a month and a half of rehearsal, the club's first concert was given with the Lenox School at Kent. During the winter term, the club gave concerts with Hotchkiss and Loomis at those schools. The first Glee Club concert of Spring term was given at Millbrook School. The following weekend, Kent gave a concert with the Choate School. The final Glee Club concert of the year was given on Fathers' Weekend by both Kent Glee Clubs.

Laura Schreiber and Mary Stevens did a fine job in leading the club, and once again the Glee Club extends much gratitude and appreciation to the excellent direction of Mr. Gilliam.

The Boys' Glee Club

Under the direction of R. Lee Gilliam the Glee Club enjoyed another successful year. While the club lacked experience, something that it had in previous years, it had natural ability. The first concert came in December at St. Margeret's, an annual affair where each school plays host on alternate years. During Winter Term, Rosemary Hall came to Kent and the club journeyed to Greenwich Academy. In the Spring they sung at Wykiem Rise, and wound up the year on Father's Weekend singing it's best numbers. Special thanks goes to Mr. Gilliam for his numerous arrangements of numbers and constant interest in the club.

Blue Key

The Blue Key work this year went well. The students that were active members did a good job on teas, banquets, and other functions, and were praised on more than one occasion for their efforts. This year's membership was smaller than in previous years as the members were chosen first and then offered a chance to serve Kent. This way they felt a greater satisfaction in what they did, and knew that they were participating in a worth while organization.

There were of course, a small group who received "Gold K's" for initiative and outstanding competance and work beyond that expected of them. A few deserved K's and have to wait until they are in a higher form, but nevertheless deserve the graditude of the school and those they served.

If this year's members and the new members continue to do a good job next year as was done this year, then the school can expect much of the Blue Key.

Distinguished from the Senior Council in that it has representation from each class, the Student Council is the student discussion forum. Meetings are held periodically with agendas usually set prior to each meeting. In addition to making disciplinary recommendations to the Headmaster, the Student Council sponsors social functions such as the Winter Carnival which enjoyed success again this year. While as students are permitted to attend the council meetings, people with suggestions must go to their form officers who in turn relay their communications before the assemblage of council members. Suggestions are voted on and/or written down for the Headmaster's perusal.

Girls' Varsity Softball

The Kent Softball team enjoyed the best season it has ever had this spring. Despite all attempts by the weather to keep the team from playing, we managed to overcome this minor frustration. Our final season record was 6 wins, one loss and one tie—with the team batting average a fantastic .619! As some will no doubt remember, this is a great improvement over past years.

Captained by Stacey Harrington, who played first base, and managed by Sally Adkins, an outfielder, the team consisted of Widget Crane, 1st base, Mary Stauffer and Mary Watkins at 2nd, Mimi Jones and Bridget Thorne at 3rd, Kathy ("Goliath") Lambert at shortstop, Harriet Downer catching, and in the outfield: Sue Constant, Flip Meinhold, Wendy Williams, Leslie Jones was pitcher.

Special thanks and appreciation go to Mr. McCarthy for his excellent coaching job. Best luck to next year's team!

Playing number one, Captain John Lowman finished the season with a 9–2 record. Close behind playing in his third year on Varsity was Kevin Dyke defeated eight out of his eleven opponents. Tim Nimick and John Barnett played in the number 3 and 4 positions. At number five and six Trevor Waters and Dick Schell contributed many wins to the team. Finally Jeff Davis Played in the third doubles position.

At the banquet at Mr. Humphreys' house John Lowman was re-elected as captain. The team would like to thank Mr. Humphreys for his fine coaching which enabled the league trophy to be brought back to Kent.

The 1967 Kent Varsity Baseball Team had a tough year. Playing without the services of two key players out with injuries all year, shortstop Keith Larson and pitcher Virgil Hauff, the team was continually plagued by misfortune as it lost four games in either the last inning or in extra innings.

High points of the season included: The unexpected batting prowess of Todd Seymour who took the batting trophy with a .363 average; consistently solid performances on the mound by pitcher Don Scudder; two big upset victories over Loomis and Trinity-Pawling; townie Cooper's daily dissertations; and a very gratifying trip to Shea Stadium to see the Mets and the Cards.

Todd Seymour won the trophy for most spirit; Mark Cooper took the R.B.I. trophy; and Jack Nisbet was the most improved player. Thanks go to Captain John Doyle and Coaches Partridge, Semler, and Nadal for their dedication and leadership throughout the season. Keith Larson will be next years captain.

The Royal Henley

Kent tops Royal Shrewsbury School Boat Club, winning race number two and qualifying for the quarter finals.

Climaxing a year that saw three course records fall to an outstanding Kent crew, the oarsmen returned to school after Prize Day for final practice on the river before leaving for England and Henley.

Racing began on June 28 with Kent pitted against Ealing Grammar. Our crew led from the start to wrap up a 2½ length victory. Hopes for the Cup rose still further on the following day when Kent topped Shrewsbury School by 1¾ lengths.

On the third day, in the quarter finals, Kent turned in the best performance of all, beating Westminister School by 2½ lengths and posting the fastest Barrier time of the Princess Cup.

But on the fourth day with only two races between Kent and the Cup, the streak ran out in a race against Tabor. Race strategy, coach Perry reported, was to get out in front of Tabor from the start, settle the stroke and answer challenges.

And it worked—up to the milepost. By Fawley (half way mark) Kent was as much as ¾ of a length ahead of hard rowing Tabor. However we failed to settle the stroke and Tabor began to come up, taking a lead at the mile and ultimately winning by three lengths.

Lee Stuart, cox, and Doug Miles, stroke, communicate during practice.

Crew

Varsity 9–1

Henly bound Varsity Crew churns Housatonic waters.

During January of this year several boys began spending their free time in the afternoon in the basement of the Science Building preparing for what was supposed to be one of the most dismal seasons of Crew in Kent's history. Using the new rowing tank and various planned exercise programs, the boys strengthened themselves, and got the Crew off to an early start on the long uphill road to victory. Twenty odd returned during early week to begin intense preparation for the up coming races.

Everything about the First Crew was new this year, including a new shell, the Rothermere II, new Ayling oars, a new course on the Housatonic to row on, and a new spirit throughout the boat club. The work during the winter term paid off, and the crew which was nothing, on paper, showed what spirit and determination to win can do. Yale fell first, and Andover was crushed by both Crews on the following weekend. Arch-rivals, Washington-Lee High School, also left nine shirts on the banks of the Housatonic, as did the Alumni. Mount Hermon, Princeton, and Tabor were also submerged by the Kent Crews. Harvard was the only boat to beat the First boat, while the Second boat lost to Yale, W-L, and Harvard. A great deal of silverware was returned to Kent this spring, including the Peace Trophy, The Alumni–K.S.B.C. Plate, the Walker Trophy, and the Sill Bowl. Surprise and joy are words that can describe the reactions of this year's boat club members. Everyone involved with the K.S.B.C. would like to thank Mr. Perry for the great job that he has done this year in helping us put Kent back where she belongs in schoolboy rowing—at the top.

The Squash Squad

Kent's first Varsity Squash team finished with a winning season of five wins and four losses. Although it lacked experience at the beginning of the season it steadily improved under the direction of Mr. Rand. At the end of the season the ladder finished in the following order: Helme, Stewart, Conolly, Pearson, Stringer, Buzzell, and Tobin.

The team had little trouble defeating Taft, Forman, Canterbury, and Millbrook. The best match of the season, although Kent lost, was against Berkshire, with a score of 4–3. Trinity-Pawling also proved to be experienced adversaries, and Kent bowed to both schools twice, Kent's only losses. The J.V. team only lost once.

At the banquet, the Brainard Squash Cup was displayed. After an intra-school tournament it was presented to Gary Helme, who was elected captain.

Gun Hoyt racing downhill at Mohawk.

On Feb. 8, 1967 the Kent Ski Team was reborn after a 13 year dormancy. Led by Captain John Bishop the Kent Team met a strong Salisbury squad and lost. Undaunted, however, the Kent Team beat Staples H.S. the next Saturday 98 to 52. At the Catamount Invitational Races with over 100 racers and 10 teams, Kent came in third behind the Eastern Champions, Hotchkiss, and Darrow. The next week Kent beat Cheshire in a close match and the following week came in second in a tri-meet with Salisbury and Staples.

At the banquet Bishop was awarded the T.D. Walder Trophy for the best skier. John showed a great consistency this year by winning meets with Cheshire, Staples and Salisbury placing first for Kent in every meet. Bob Tyler had some bad luck but placed second against Cheshire and Salisbury and showed amazing drive. Gun Hoyt, our aristocrat, consistently placed well. Bill Morrison looked good and will do well next year. Paul Davis showed great improvement and spirit. At the Banquet Bishop, after giving Mr. Neves a well-deserved thanks, announced his successor, Spencer Stuart.

The wrestling squad finished a hard season with the best record in recent years. The 6–2 season marked the last year for Coach Lee Ahlborn, and posted the best record of his four years as Head Coach. The opening match of the year was a night romp of the Gunnery School. Impressive victories followed over Cheshire, Wooster, Taft, Loomis, and Trinity Pawling. The finest win of the year was the 20–19 win over Trinity Pawling where Capt. Brown and Cardin both won their matches 9–8.

The determining factor in the success of the team was the devotion and dedication which was evident even before Christmas. The leadership of the seniors on the squad including Stevenson, Kee, Silverthorne, and Machcinski was largely responsible for the record.

The season concluded with the Connecticut Tournament and the Banquet. At the tournament Schell took a second, Cardin a third, and Machcinski a forth in their weight classes. At the Banquet Capt. Peter Brown and the Squad presented Coach Ahlborn with a revere reproduction Bowl in recognition of his 7 years of coaching. The Wing trophy for the best wrestler went to Schell who had an undefeated season. Schell was elected as captain for next year.

The Varsity Hockey squad finished it's season with a five and eleven record. The team remained spirited and alive the whole season despite its losses. After a heartbreaking defeat at Trinity Pawling, Kent came back to beat Hotchkiss and Canterbury. The squad played a great final game against Trinity Pawling losing 1–2. The squad as a whole received the Hope Trophy for beating Hotchkiss twice during the season.

The team was centered around Seymour, Drinker, Thompson, Shew, and the "elephants" (Stevens and Aller). Patrick and Watkins displayed what hustle and desire could make a hockey player into while sophomore sensations Waters and Pelleatreau also showed great ability.

Semler and Shew ended up with the most points. At the banquet Todd Seymour was nominated most improved because of his aggressiveness, Semler received the Nadal trophy for being the best all round hockey player and Jackson won the conveted Shagticoke Trophy. Ascher did receive his letter for managing and Wally Shew was elected captain for next year. Tribute is given to coaches Bragdon and Perry.

High points of the season included Virgil's record-breaking 35 points against Hotchkiss and Chris Beach's game-winning shot in the great final night game victory over T.P.

At the banquet, Virgil Hauff was named the team's most valuable player; Dave Dawkins was chosen as the most improved player; Jack Nisbet received an award for making the most free throws; and Pebs Beach was awarded a basketball for the most spirit. Captain Hauff, in behalf of the team, presented a basketball, compliments of the Berkshire Athletic Association, to Mr. Morris in appreciation of his excellent leadership this year. John Lowman was voted next year's captain.

Ray and John Baxter shared the fullback positions, and Dick Muzzy along with Jeff Davis played the other two halfback spots. The powerful line consisted of Wally Shew, Archie Korentang, Bob Watkins, Rick Semler and Lee Srewart. Stew Jackson did a fine job in the goal achieving four shutouts.

At the banquet, Rick Semler and Ray Baxter were awarded the Captain's Trophy for the most help given to the Captain; Stew Jackson received the Paylovich Trophy for Most Improved Player; and Archie Koranteng was presented the Winlaw Trophy for Most Spirited Player. Bob Watkins was elected as next year's captain after completing a fine season.

Varsity football completed the season with a 3-4 record.

Led by Captain Virgil Hauff and a nucleus of returning lettermen including Aller, Drinker, Stevens, Silverthorne, Doyle, Brown Davis, and Barzilauskus, the team overcame many adversities throughout the fall and capped the season with a convincing victory over Loomis in the annual Spoon Game.

High points of the season were Hauff's record breaking 350-yard total yardage performance in the loss to Suffield; the smashing Mother's Weekend victory over Berkshire; and, of course, the Spoon Game victory in which Hauff and Marvin starred.

At the banquet, Vic Machinski was awarded the Marvin A. Franklin Most Improved Player Trophy; Jack Nisbet was presented with the Thayer Best Lineman Trophy; and Pete Jost won the Mitchell Trophy for efficiency, and spirit. Tony Barzilauskus was elected unanimously next year's captain.

The team wishes to express its thanks and appreciation to Coach Franklin and his two assistants, Mr. Andrews and Mr. McCullough, for their undying efforts throughout a season, which plagued by many injuries and other setbacks, nonetheless proved to be a good one ending in a great victory.

Fourth Form

This year, the class of 1969 lived up to its reputation. We enjoyed many memorable and exciting events.

In athletics Tim Pickering and John Drinker played Varsity Soccer for some of the season and Malcolm Poole, Bill Evans, Fred Schoch, Barry Emberlin, and Treat Williams all played Varsity Football. During the Winter there were more fourth formers on Varsity Hockey than Seniors or Juniors. Bill Pelletreau (rest his soul), John Drinker, Eric Jackson, and Trever Waters all started and were backed up by Malin, Pickering and Kallgren who would have lettered if he had not spent so much time throwing people out of windows. Bill Summerlin and Barry Emberlin both started on Varsity Wrestling. During the Spring Fred Schoch rowed on the winning Varsity Crew and Malcolm Poole and John Drinker pulled for the J.V.'s. Ted Sceelye lettered on Varsity Baseball, and Dick Schill and Trever Waters played Varsity Tennis.

The form leaders, Poole, Drinker, and F. Bulterman did a fine job planning teas, dances, and other extracurricular events. The form was led academically by DuPont, Scheel, Pickering, Fink, Wooton, Tilghman, and many others.

In extracurricular activities Rick Boulware showed his ability in ballet. Wootton, Van Deusen, Williams, Boss, Turner, Lewis, all sang in the Glee Club while Boss and Williams sang for the Tones.

The year was good one for our form as new responsibilities were taken on and many activities were a success. The fact that one of us was the phantom did not phase our well liking. As for the girls school we have our winners and losers.

Our thanks to 67, whose unapathetic ways have kept us on the path of righteousness.

Fifth Form

September 12th—the big Day—the class of 1968 staggered back, facing once again the horrors of unie and sturds. Things settled down rapidly, and before we knew it, it was exam time and we were ordering our rings—and then, the Great Escape and a taste of honey once again.

Winter term opened with deceptively nice weather, but as we settled down to the grim realization of S.A.T.'s and History term papers, the weather as well as our spirits fell. The Breakfast Club reopened despite the later lights we had been given fall term, and the schoolhouse was the scene of many early morning adventures. Winter term went out like a lion and we stumbled away like sheep with pneumonia.

Spring term was the term that was . . . amazing. The weather was poor and many believed that the fifth-formers were painting an arc instead of numerals. However, a new spirit of form unity dispelled the gloom. Our pop-top rings were a hint to the seniors, and the ring banquet came as a surprise to all despite the efforts of Pea Brain Pattishall to let us all in on the secret. The rest of the term flew by quickly as we formed committees to work on our songs and our mural. The mural was a great success and announced the coming of a thousand clowns.

Tapping happened, and led by the redoubtable Waller, all thousand clowns climbed to the Gym roof and proudly painted those glorious numerals—68. After a restful night on the Gym floor, we climbed to roof once more and serenaded the entire school to the accompaniment of tennis balls thrown by several of the less mature fourth-formers . . . we'll remember you Damory!

The fifth-form picnic was a great success mostly because of the terrific performance of Watts Fire Dept. All in all it's been an eventful year, and we'd like to thank '67 for the interesting and revolutionary tactics in leadership, and for real gusto in a great year. Good luck from '68.

1967 has been a very successful year for the fifth form. Who could forget the happiness of Willie, strolling down the boardwalk, clutching a letter sent from the G.S.?, and the importance of our representatives on the athletic fields. There were such greats as Brontozaurus, Lowman on the totem-pole, Rico, the Phantom, Lurch, Lionel, and Bably. A few of the Honor Rollers were; Geoff Tidwell, Doug Watt, Charlie Whitin, "baby Boom" Smith, Miami Lammi, Surf Savaran, Ruffles Pastorfield, Dave MacDonald, Good Guy Buzzell, and Brensht Oldam.

'68 had its share of entertainers; El Rock's interviews and David Savaran's Traveling Troupe with their great performances of "The Fisherman" and "The J.A. Cantata". Sir Mort Mattews, Carter Davis, and Nigel Wilking, were triumphs on the stage. NO one lacked music with the Post-War Baby Booming, and the Jug Bands wailing.

Rock Day was a momentous time for the form. The Sixth Form charitably hid the paint and was very generous with the water. How interesting the Rock looked at the day. Bagley managed to find his way to the water's edge on a rather unexpected birthday.

All in all it was a great year for '68 with the hope of an even better one coming forthwith.

Our pranks were better organized and far more sophisticated. We lifted 10 gallons of vanilla ice cream from the dining hall and painted Ethel very creatively several times. The form's relationships with the B.S. improved considerably.

We came back in the fall with strong leadership, and by mid-term were on our way to becoming the most effective sixth form ever. But soon we were discovering that four or five major subjects were more than we wanted to handle. And, too, we learned that the job at the top was a hard one. We had to give up the gay lives we had led as rabble and change to start thinking and acting more like adults.

Social highlights were our own dance weekends and carnivals. It was spring term that really brought out the true feelings we had for Kent. We were finally thinking of the School instead of ourselves—what had Kent given us, what had we given Kent; how could we improve ourselves as part of Kent, and how could we improve Kent.

One June 8th we left with diplomas in hand and mixed feelings of joy, excitement, expectation, and sadness. Like every alumnus of Kent School, we began our growing up process here. We discovered what it is like to fight, to face defeat, to face triumph, and then to use these experiences. Some of us will excell, and all of us will retain the indelible qualities Kent has given us.

The girls' class of 1967 was born in the fall of '63 when we entered the school as third formers. Although we were few and young, we soon became an active part of the Kent community. Our council members that first year were the unlikely choices of Lisa Childs, Susie Sutherland, and Sally Horton.

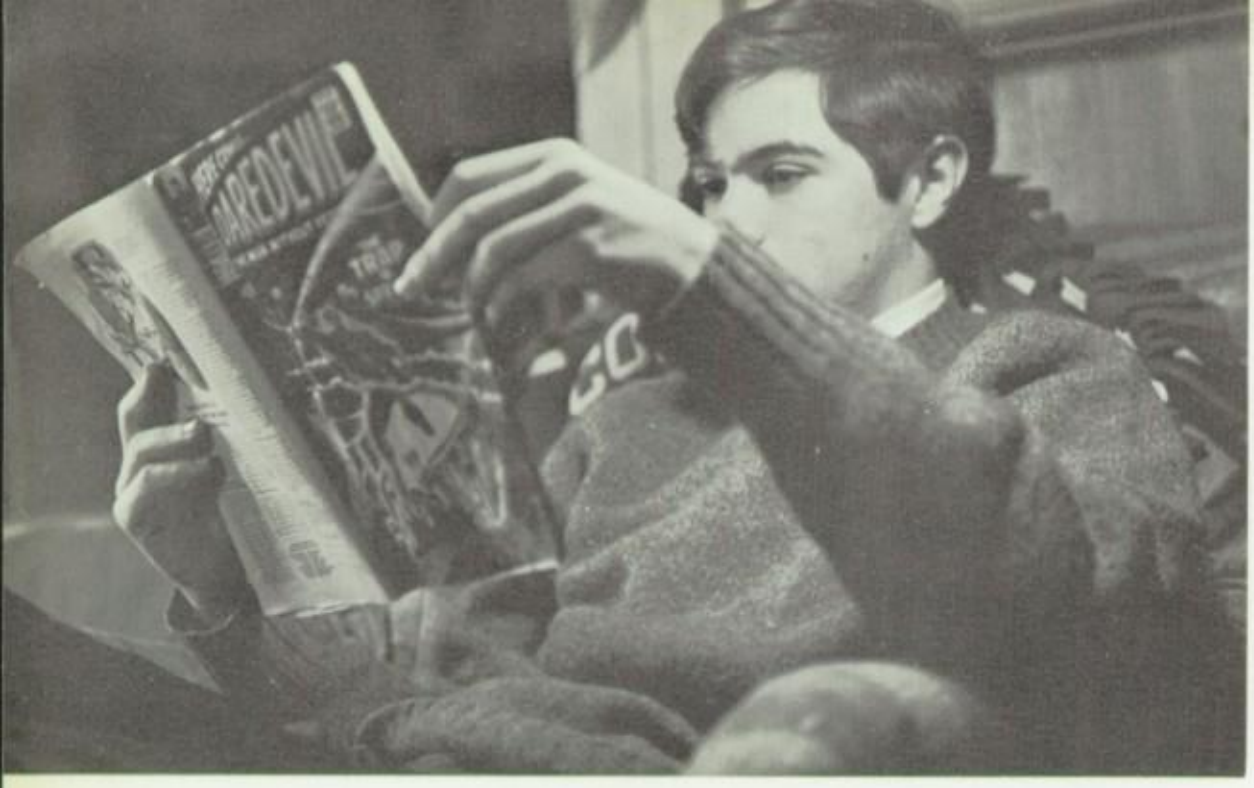
We started off well by piling up 397 hours and winning a reputation for such pranks as bringing a horse into the common room, climbing into the glass trophy showcase, and using the wrong rope on the rope tow.

The old third formers returned in the fall of '64 to find their ranks doubled in size, individuality, spunk, and irresponsibility. The newcomers did not take long to fit in, with a resulting spreading and easing of the cliques of old.

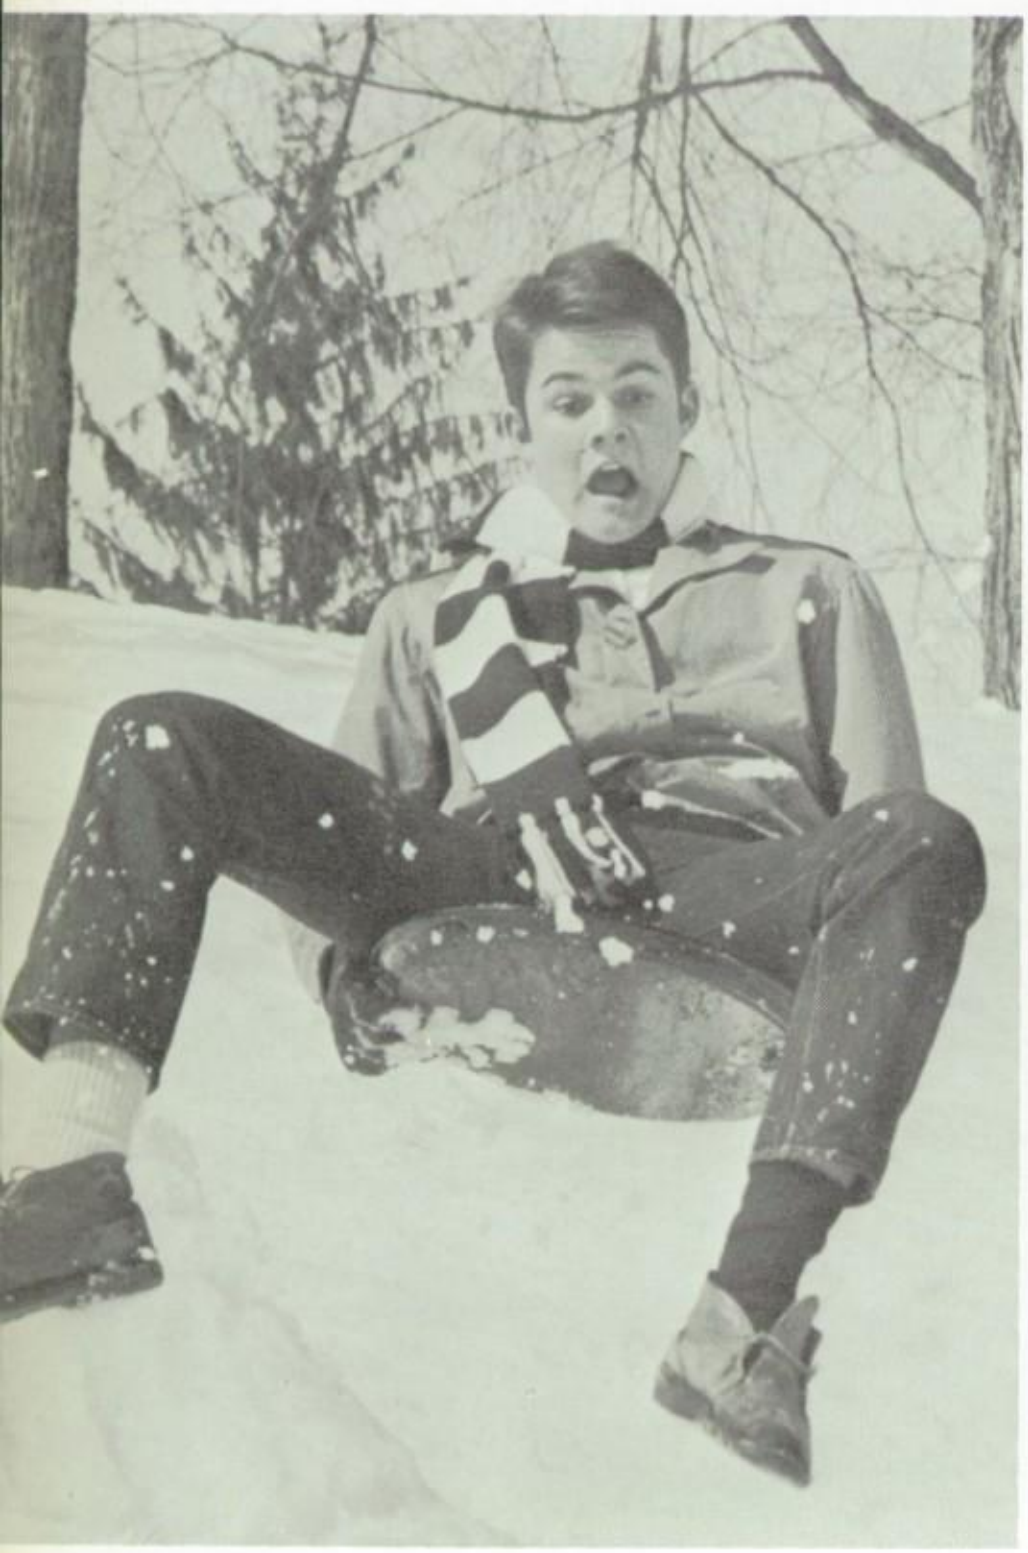
That year the idea of the Student Council seemed to change slightly from that of a popularity contest, and Alice Robinson, Katie Boyce, and Lisa (again) were elected. We told Lisa she'd one day be S.P. She laughed!

Fifth form year was wilder than ever. We began to pull together, and the "spirit on '67" was further nourished by the election of our Council members: Lisa, Laura, and Liz Taylor. Junior year was, of course, the important year academically. Like all our predecessors, we suffered through P.S.A.T.'s, S.A.T.'s and the rest of the alphabet of learning.

Bye Bye, So Long



DAREDEVIL



Senior year was a competitive and successful year for the entire form. As Seniors we tried to operate the school effectively and efficiently, although we found the senior pressures and responsibilities greater and the privileges fewer than anticipated. However the year was not without many (too many?) enjoyable and hilarious hours. Most importantly everyone got in college, and the class had an excellent percentage of those accepted by their first choice college. Spring term was especially relaxed and enjoyable despite the intermittent snow and hail.

As alumni we cherish the influential opportunities that Kent has provided for us. Our combined wish is that we will continually further ourselves in academic pursuits in order that we may eventually be able to benefit and represent Kent favorably by becoming prolific and pertinacious American citizens.

Since our induction into Kent School the Class of 1967 has witnessed a great maturity in its members, and a consistant metamorphous in the Kent Community as well.

As second formers the original 36 quickly became familiar with the vigorous routine of the Kent system. Even though young, the class showed great potential. The high-point of our uneventful second form year was the tackle football game with the Sixth form girls; an experience which was an education in itself.

Third form year our class doubled in size. Although there was a great deal of individualism, the class began to develop a sense of unity which would be decisive and necessary in the future years. But for the moment we were still insignificant as good rabble should be, merely puppets of the system and its enforcers.

As fourth formers we were 90 strong, potentially the largest class to graduate from Kent. A few acquired a mild interest in our counterparts on the hill, but the victories and accomplishments in the valley were more important. The class gained confidence and earned respect in the school.

Computer Coit, Harry Scott Baker, Pete Patch, and Head Morgan led the school academically fifth form year. Virg Hauff, Sandy Silverthorne, and Legs Seymour excelled in athletics. A larger number of the form was visiting the G.S. more and more frequently. At the tapping ceremony a select 13 from our midst were chosen to be leaders and were asked to be responsible. Bird was appointed Senior Prefect and Frog, Dard, Hack were tapped the other prefects. Bo-Bo Machinski was elected the Senior Council Member shortly afterwards. The new leaders were confronted with "instant crisis" within an hour after the service, but despite the crisis Rock Day was a success. The cubscout blue and gold of '66 was covered with the bold green and brilliant gold of '67.

The Senior Councils

STANDING: Jost, MacNamara, Dodson, Stuart. SITTING: Muzzy, Brown, Griggs, Machcinski, Shew, Silverthorne, Aller, Doyle, Ferree.

The Senior Councils consist of the eleven tapped form leaders from both schools and the two senior council members. The two Councils are informal groups which meet at times designated by the Senior Prefect. They deal with events in the school ranging from disciplinary problems to the organization of social events. The Senior Councils attempt to advise the Headmaster and Faculty on school Happenings. This year one of the joint Senior Council projects was the Halloween Carnival for both schools, an event which will be continued in successive years.

The Towles

It seems almost too much to ask one man to be the headmaster, chief administrator, and public head of two communities as large as Kent School. As Mr. Sidney N. Towle has shown his devotion and perseverence on the Alumni Council and Board of Trustees, he has shown it to us as headmaster. We have seen him at Hockey games, Guild meetings, and late at night working in his office. We have heard him on the athletic field and in the auditorium. We have admired his leadership in every area of the school. Since Kent has grown under his guidance in the size of the student body and the campus, we have been amazed at his ability to do what seemed to be the job of many men.

Always behind him we remember Mrs. Towle. In the greatly expanded riding program, at dances, and at teas we were grateful for her guidance and help. The girls especially will be forever thankful for her untiring concern.

For shaping an age in each of our lives, we will remember Kent and its headmaster. We have always known who has the best interests of the school at heart.

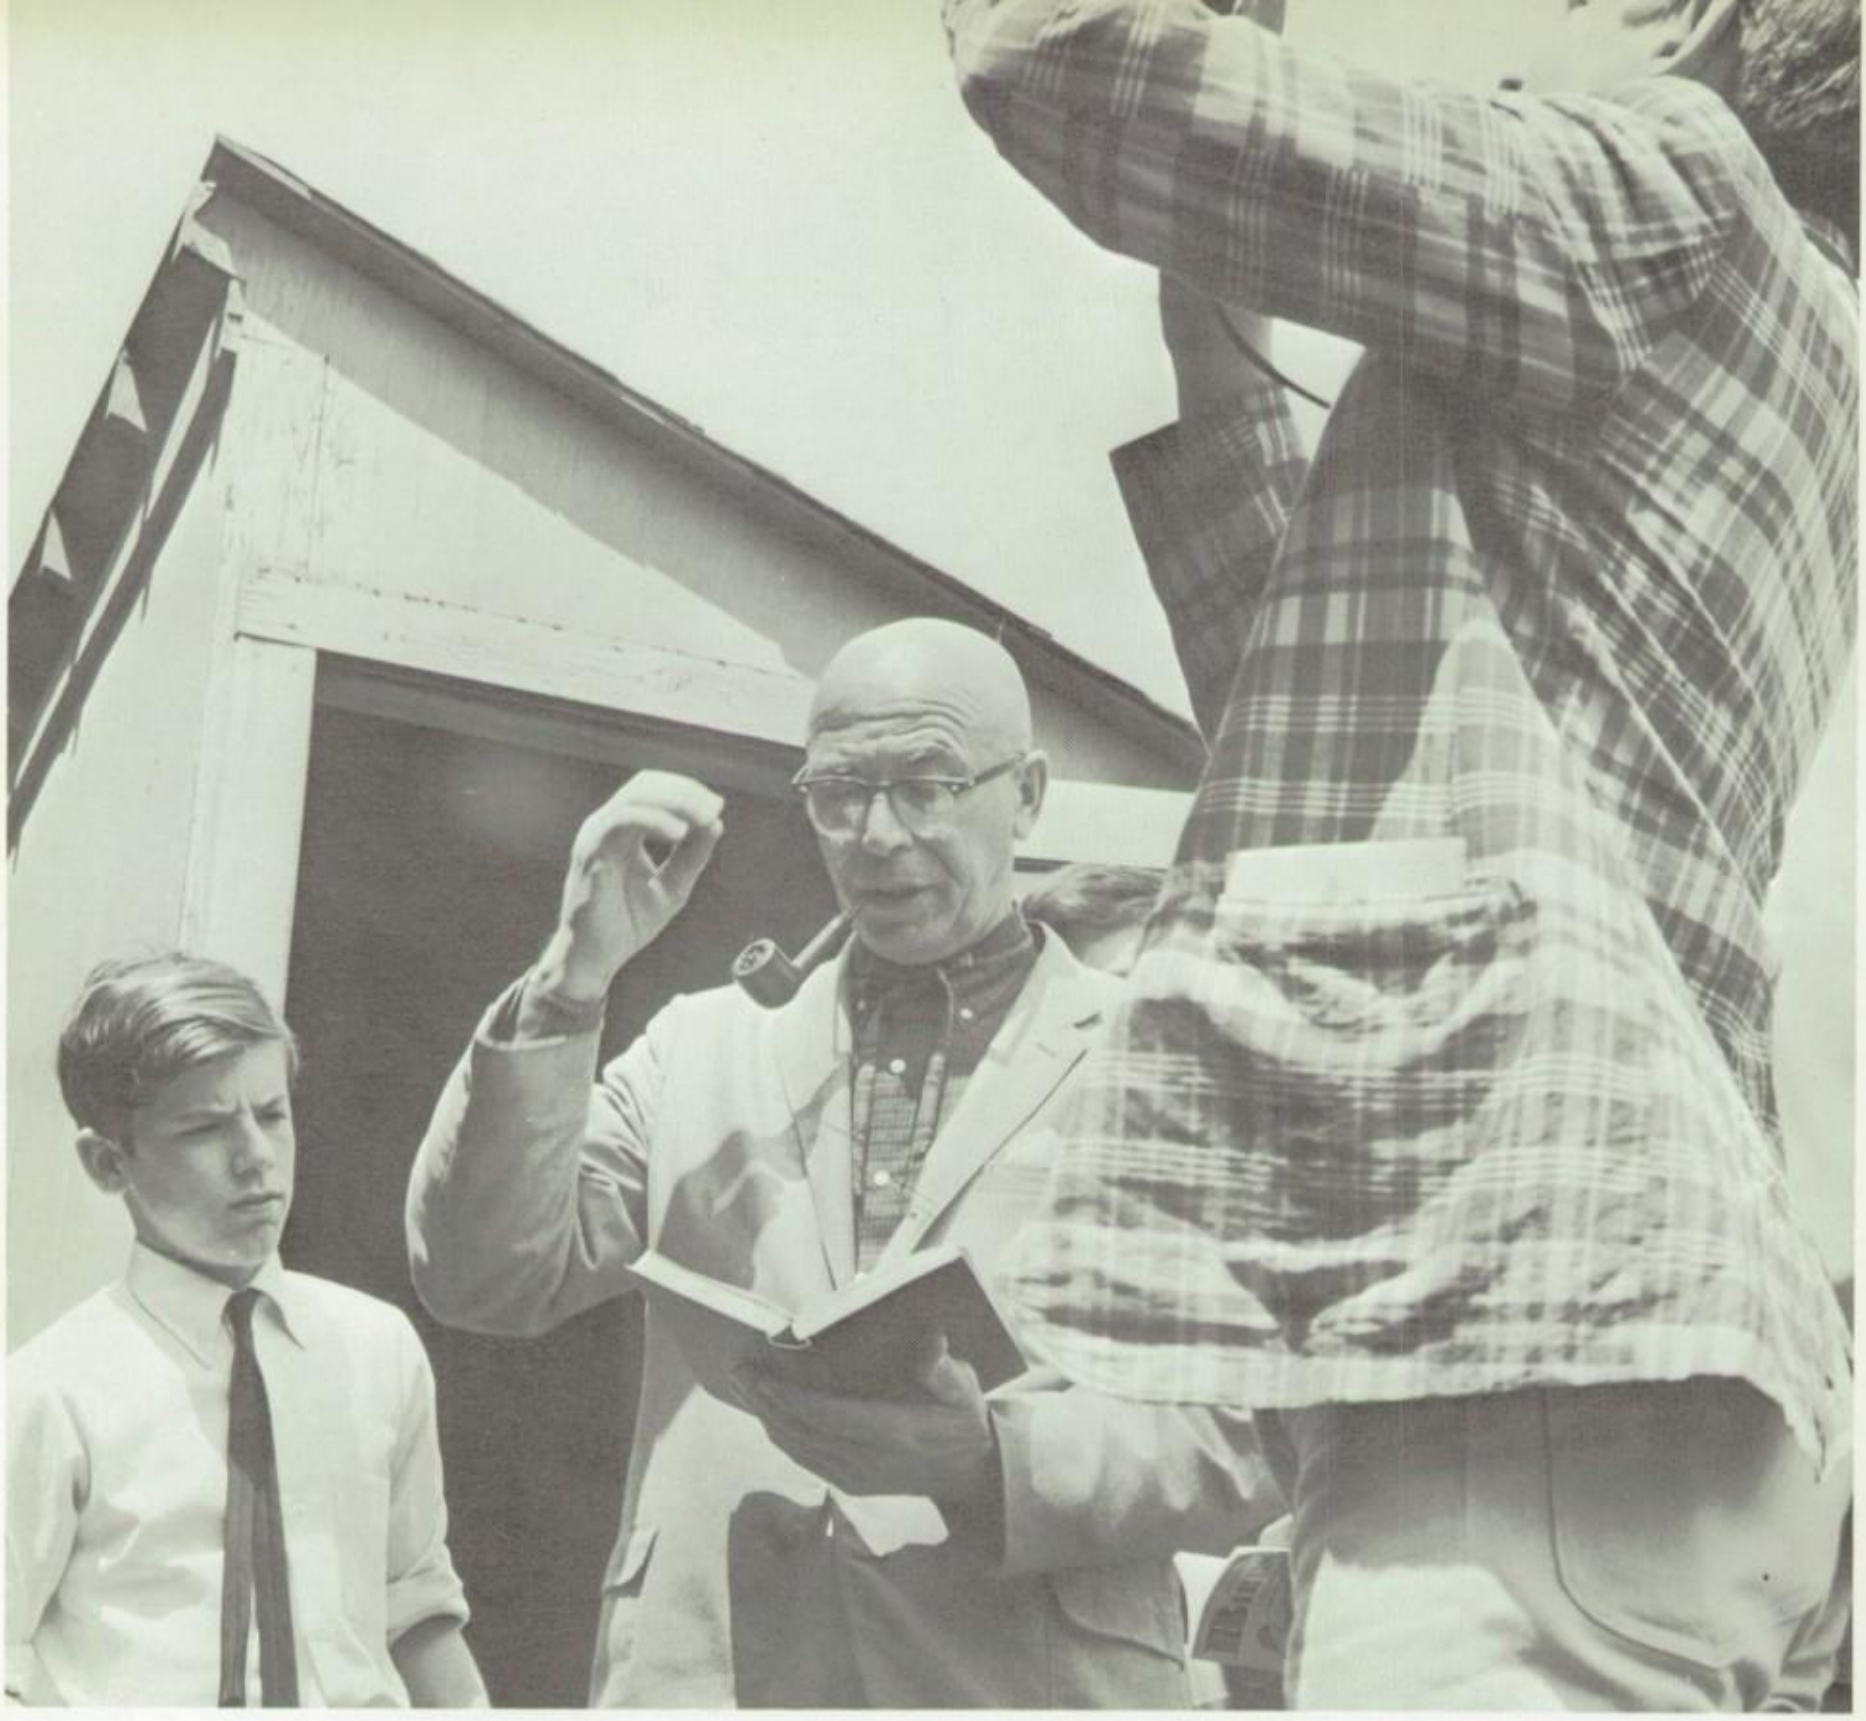
The smile familiar to all.

The First Family

Mrs. Towle approves of horse show.

There are always people in the Chem lab, in classrooms, on the tennis and basketball courts, in the office for course selection, and college catalogs. But there is only one person who is busy in all these areas, and that is D.V. If a student ever has any problems with her schedule, Mr. D.V. solves them. Whether it's a chemistry lab or an important test, Mr. D.V. is always ready to help. As a coach, he has led many tennis teams to many victories. We in the class of '67 know and love him as our head coach. Consider the problem of getting sixty "wild things" into the college of their choice, and you have recognized the hapless problem Mr. D.V. has faced this year, as well as years previous and future.

We have found it extremely difficult to express our love and appreciation to such a giving person. We tried by giving him an attaché case and notes while he recovered in the hospital. Yet we were not satisfied. So it was decided, with nothing short of a unanimous decision, that we would give to him the greatest honor in our power. Therefore, we the Girls' School class of 1967 dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Edward DeVillafranca with greatest and deepest thanks.



By a landslide vote the 1967 Kent boys dedicated their yearbook to the inimitable William Henry Armstrong. This sweeping tribute exemplifies the overall high esteem in which this revered master who impartially guided us is held by our class. Perhaps in him we have seen the composite personification of the "Kent Way": Simplicity of Life, Directness of Purpose, and Self Reliance.

Surely Mr. Armstrong was well placed at the beginning of the sequence that would record Kent's lasting impact upon us. We entered his classroom as young adolescents and emerged with the mark and the challenge of manhood. Study Is Hard Work was not merely a coined phrase nor a book of his authorship which would become our classroom bible. No, we were soon to discover that this emphatic phrase would be the basic discipline—the foundation on which we would build our temple of knowledge as we passed through Kent—and a vital philosophy which we could apply to life beyond Kent's doors.

We were not only awed by Mr. Armstrong, the dynamic educator and historian, but we were indelibly impressed by Mr. Armstrong, the prolific and adept man—the nationally acclaimed scholar and writer who himself leads an invigorating life outside the classroom. We remember Mr. Armstrong as a man of astounding prowess, a gentleman farmer, a landscaper, a swimmer, an ornithologist, and a successful businessman actively involved in the pursuit of real estate sales.

We shall always remember Mr. Armstrong's generosity and his apt sense of humor. We shall cherish our participation in the tree planting ceremony which he instigated to provide our class with a living monument in the annals of Kent.

The class of 1967 admires Mr. Armstrong for being successfully creative without being extravagant. We will always think of him as a friend who pushed us when we needed pushing and pulled us when we needed pulling. His influence upon us is certain to be valuable to us all throughout our lives and, although he is worthy of more, to him we dedicate our yearbook.

During the four of five years that most of us have been at Kent, the class of '67 has witnessed a gradual but distinct trend toward the unification of the Kent Boy's School and the Kent Girl's School.

Although the Girl's School is a relatively new foundation and the Boy's School is a separate establishment of longer standing repute, the two institutions are becoming more and more tightly cohered in all respects of school life. Annually each school becomes more dependent upon and appreciative of its co-ordinate.

In study curriculum, in philosophy, in purpose, in practice, in privilege, in planning, in pleasure, and in promise the schools are united.

In class we often learn together, in chapel we often worship together; we plan and organize jointly in clubs including the Senior Councils, the News, the Yearbook, and the IRC. We share in pleasures such as dances, dramatics, picnics, choir, carnivals, and Glee·Club, and we share in Performing Arts and Public Affairs Lectures. We are united under one headmaster and under a single faculty. The schools are bounded by a common philosophy: Self-Reliance, Directness of Purpose, and Simplicity of Life. We are one in Privilege; going to Kent, being administered by a dedicated, devoted and distinguished staff, and having excellent and modern physical facilities constantly available to us. Finally upon graduation we are one in promise; to be persevering, productive and public spirited.

The hill meets the valley at its base
And they are one,
Each has its own identity
But is in harmony with the whole.

"Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brethren dwell in unity."
